

PRIVACY POLICY

SASD is committed to protecting our customers' privacy and does not, without your knowledge and permission, collect personal information about you or regarding the reasons for your visit. SASD will not resell or distribute any site-visitor data. Unless you voluntarily provide personal information to us when inquiring about or requesting specific services, we will not ask you for, or track, any personal information for any purpose.

If you choose to send us e-mail that includes personal information, we will generally use the information only to respond to your message and for no other purposes. Occasionally, however, we may forward your e-mail to a different department that may be better able to help you. We do not use the information to create personal profiles or give it to others for commercial use or other purposes. If you send us a threat or a message that describes or promotes unlawful activity, we may share it with law enforcement authorities.

If you have any questions regarding this privacy policy, please contact the Public Affairs Office by calling (916) 876-6120.
